

How did we do

DSP 2023 Feedback

Now that the 24th International Conference on Digital Signal Processing (DSP 2023) is over and each one of us is safe back home, I would like to thank you again for participating, thus rendering this small-size but high-impact event, a success.

The high quality work and your great participation in a friendly and breathtaking venue have left deeply to all of us a memorable experience.

Overall Experience of DSP 2023 Participants

Selected Highlights

“ Quality of the scientific papers, the excellent organization of the conference and social events, the place itself. ”

“ The amazing keynote speakers, the overall delightful atmosphere the organizers maintained, and the WISP session. ”

“ The setting was very scenic and I liked how the smaller conference allowed more opportunities for casual interactions. ”

What can we do better

“ Informal events. More chances to interact with and get to know the other invitees would have been beneficial. ”

“ Unlimited coffee supply. ”

Conference organisation experience

Where would you like to meet for the next conference?
